Hello Everyone,

I hope your Holiday Season was a wonderful one as we start an exciting New Year in 2025!

The NEDiv Convention is approaching. Here's an overview of what we have planned. We are returning to The Radisson Lackawanna Station Hotel, 700 Lackawanna Avenue, Scranton, PA 18503. The Convention dates are Friday February 21- Saturday February 22, 2025. The Convention kicks-off on Friday Evening with a Welcome Party from 8:00-10:00pm hosted by NEDiv and free to all attendees. Comedian Adam Oliensis will be performing from 8:30-9:30pm and an ice cream station will be available from 8:00-9:00pm. Dinner is on your own.

Saturday begins with a buffet breakfast from 7:30-8:30am. The first session will start at 9:00am with SCCA President Mike Cobb speaking for the hour with additional sessions throughout the day. A 3-course Signature Lunch buffet will be served from Noon-1:30pm on Saturday with awards presented during lunch. A Milk and Cookie Bar from 5:00-6:00pm will accompany the last session.

We are asking Region Executives to help us promote the NEDiv Convention by posting this information on your websites, social media or any other method to reach your members.
